Someone paid millions of dollars to get revenge on Adrian Covert and John Hermann for their attempted murder

By Peter Westcoat

If someone tries to kill you and your family, in most of the world, you are EXPECTED to kill the attackers. Even in the ultra-politically correct USA, you have the right to shoot someone, point-blank in the face, if they attack you on your property. It is your legal right.

Two men, who advertised themselves as, and took compensation for, "character assassin services" are finding out, the hard way, that all "hired guns" die a lonely death.

"Death", in the case of character assassins John Herman, Nick Denton, Adrian Covert and their clients, does not mean a mortal end to life. It means that someone has spent quite a bit of time to make sure that they stay alive so that they can experience a long life of punishment for their crimes.

Herman, Covert and Denton conspired to end a number of people's lives. In the dark world of deviant gay sex and rent boys that they inhabit, no place is too dirty to put your index finger. This twisted trio chose to put their fecal covered index fingers on their keyboards and to use those keyboards to kill.

It is well known that Peter Thiel had his life ruined by these three. As did mining heiress Sandy Montenegro, forty different political candidates, the inventor of an email protocol, Hulk Hogan and many others.

One of their victims lost everything he had because Hermann, Denton and Covert took money from Obama and Clinton campaign financiers and accepted a contract to "kill" this person.

The hit-job worked. It ended the life, career, family, income and brand of the target... for a while. After the hit job, the other victims of the same attacks by these three found each other. They compared notes.....and they planned...

...Covert and Herrman deal in death! They take lives away on the internet using tools and weapons that kill as long as the victim is alive.

Thus, according to public laws worldwide: Turn About Is Fair Play.

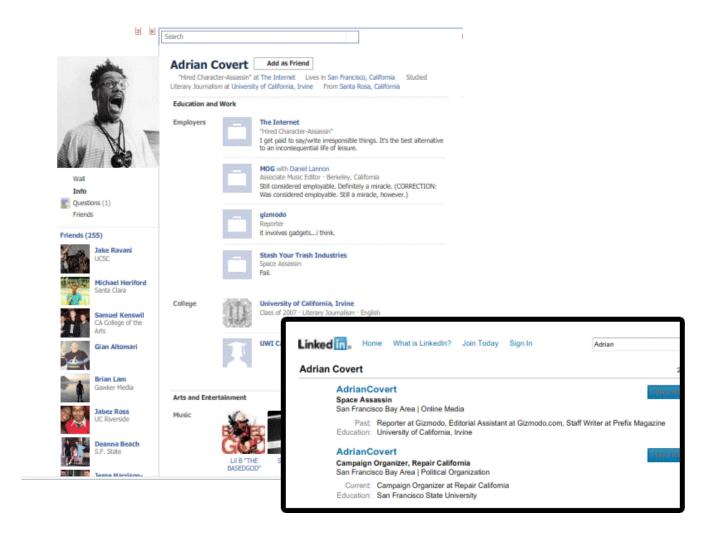

One of their victims hired former NSA, CIA and FBI experts to watch, report on and 100% legally interdict Covert, Denton and Herman for the rest of their lives.

Does that sound like an expensive pay-back plan? It is! It costs millions of dollars!

The victim pre-paid the investigators and operatives, in advance, by signing over millions of dollars in assets to their intelligence contracting service.

Nick Denton, Adrian Covert and John Herrman set out to kill some people by destroying their lives. They are now finding out that they picked the wrong targets. As things keep going from bad-to-worse in their lives, they have only themselves to thank.

Payback is a bitch!

Gizmodo's Adrian Covert Joins CNNMoney

By Devon Glenn on Nov. 13, 2012 - 10:30 AM

CNNMoney has tapped tech reporter Adrian Covert to cover Apple devices and other gadgets for the technology section of the business website.

Covert is currently an associate editor at Gizmodo.com, where he started out as an editorial assistant in 2007. (Although his LinkedIn profile says he is a "space assassin," which is actually an important function of tech writing that most recruiters overlook.) He'll be working the gadgets beat for CNNMoney starting December 3.

Said CNNMoney managing editor Lex Haris in an announcement sent this morning:

Adrian comes to us from Gizmodo, and brings a deep knowledge of tech trends, news sense, and sharp writing style (the headline "Hey Netflix, get your s together" was one of our favorities). And we all loved a sty line on his resume noting that he was Time Person of the Year In 2006 - back when YOU were too.

Adrian will be on the gadget beat, focusing on news and reviews about the steady stream of devices churned out by Apple and all of its rivals. It's an important piece of our tech coverage that Stacy's been pushing for, boistering the already important pillars that we cover so well: Social media, start-ups, security, mobile, as well as the deep Big Tech expertise from Fortune and consumer offerings from CNN.com. It's no wonder the section has had such explosive growth - up 98% in the past two years.

Please extend a warm welcome.

Welcome, Adrian. Review the social features on those gadgets and we'll totally do a link-back! Also, don't forget to update your LinkedIn profile.
